

There is no possible escape except maybe violence, self-mutilation, sometimes even self-destruction.

As opposed to the child, the artist can do almost anything! He can show and tell everything he truly thinks through diverted ways such as humor.

So much that artists are sometimes regarded as forerunners and even genius! Our good old artists hey! There is an artist in every family. This will be the youngest or the tallest child. Actually we never refer to his/her being deeply unable to fit into the system.

Art thus becomes the only way to speak while keeping one's mouth shut. It helps the artist to talk about themselves.
